DEDICATION

The 1981 Viking Staff proudly dedicates the 43rd edition to Mrs. Alice Krumtinger who has given 13 years of service as a kindergarten teacher to the Cambridge schools.

Mrs. Krumtinger conducted a private kindergarten class in her home before there was a full-time kindergarten class at school. The class of '81 was the first class to have her as a teacher. Her enthusiasm and dedication in working with students is deeply appreciated at CHS. The students hold many memories of her guidance in helping them begin their educational careers.

SOMETIMES YOU'RE ALONE ...

SOMETIMES YOU'RE IN A CROWD ....

AND SOMETIMES
YOU'RE ALONE

IN A CROWD

The staff members at CHS help the students to learn, but they also help students to find their own individuality. Teachers encourage students to read books and open their world through knowledge. Without the guidance and understanding of the faculty and staff many students would be lost in the crowd.

FACULTY

SCHOOL ADMINISTRATORS HAVE TO

Above left: Mr. Wongstrom-The Cambridge High School Principal. Above right: Mr. Schehl-Unit Superintendent. Below: Board of Education-left to right: L. Neumann, E. Galle, H. Vincent, L. Matson, R. Reed, G. Nelson. Not present for the picture was H. Schnowske.

MAKE MANY UNPOPULAR DECISIONS

ORGANIZATIONS

A collage of various items including a plaid shirt, a baseball cap, a book, and a guitar, with a student in the foreground. The student is wearing glasses and a dark shirt, looking down at a book or paper. The background is a mix of these items, creating a textured, layered effect. The word "Slingshot" is written in a cursive font on the right side of the collage.

Organizations are as much a part of high school life as school itself. Every organization, from FFA to the Library Club, has something different to offer, and the students enjoy having the opportunity to choose from such a variety of clubs. No matter how varied the students' interests are, the organizations at CHS have appeal for almost every individual.

NEW EVENTS ADDED TO FHA CALENDAR

Left: Diane Thompson, one of the senior models, shows off the new look in western wear at the annual style show. Below: Many people enjoyed a variety of salads at the salad bar which preceded the style show. This event, which is always well attended is the FHA's only money making project.

SPORTS

A team is made up of many different individuals with different talents all working together. The combined skills of many people are what make a team really good. Sports give students a chance to put their individual talents to work for a common cause. One of the most difficult things for most teams is to get all the various talents to blend together into a well-organized team, but through hard work and dedication this goal can be accomplished.

VIKING DEFENSE A CONFERENCE LEADER

Everyone has experienced a time when he has felt alone in a crowd. There are times when, even in a crowded classroom, the mind wanders and one feels alone. Every individual relates to classes in his own way. Some feel a sense of adventure, some have a hard struggle ----- and some feel that class is a time to daydream.

ACTIVITIES

There were many different kinds of individuals in CHS. The different activities which were put on throughout the year gave every type of person a chance to have fun in his own way. The activities gave every individual a chance to get together and have fun with others who shared his interests. The 1980-'81 school year was filled with many varied kinds of activities. There were dances, plays, trips, and concerts — enough to keep everyone busy.
