VOLUME XI

DEDICATION

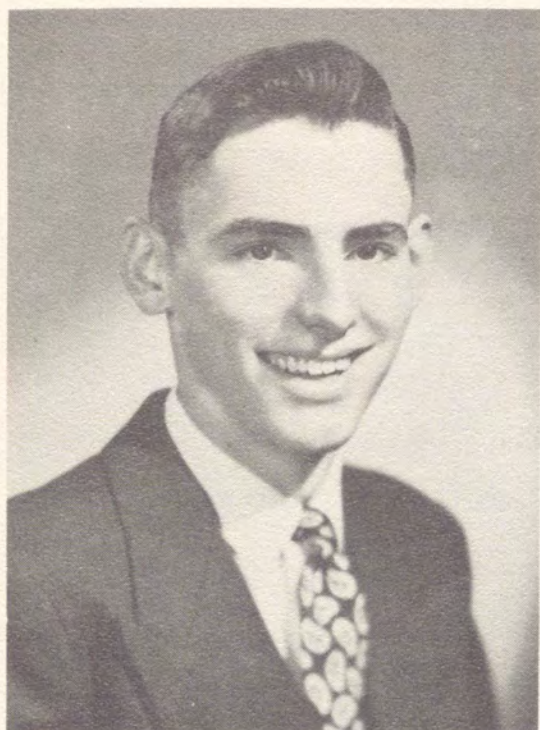

To the memory of Edward Walline, Secretary of Board of Education 1945-48, friend of the schools, students and faculty alike, who consistently stood for better educational opportunities for all and hence a better community in which to live, we sincerely dedicate this annual.

Dolores was permitted to spend only a short time in C.C.H.S. but her memory will always be endeared in the hearts of all her classmates and fellow-students. To know her was to love her, for she possessed a radiant personality, a kindly disposition, and superb intellect; a consummation of traits that easily made her an outstanding student beloved by all who knew her.

CLASS DAY

"Class Will"

We, the members and graduating class of Cambridge Community Unit District Schools of 1949, being of sound mind and memory, do hereby publish and declare this our Last Will and Testament, hereby expressly revoking any and all other wills, statements, and testaments made by us at any time heretofore.

FIRST: We direct that all our debts, including our graduation expenses, expenses of our last year, and all other numerous expenses that anyone else can think of, plus the expenses of the administration of our estate, be paid by our executors, hereinafter named.

SECOND: We, in our extreme generosity and kindness, will the following to our beloved faculty:

To Mr. Mosher all the numerous excuses, eligibility slips, admission slips, and magazines that he so graciously placed at our disposal.

To Mr. Johnson all the misplaced, broken, and misused compasses, rulers, protractors, and geometry models that have been given to us to use.

To Miss Westerlund all adventurous tales of her experiences which were so willingly told to us in our four years to be used over again.

To Mr. Young all laboratory equipment that was so unwillingly broken or ruined by us also the many preserved specimens of frogs, worms, and grasshoppers which we had the most un-extreme pleasure of dissecting.

To Mr. Moore all the torn and battered farm magazines plus all the ice cream which we so eagerly devoured at our F. F. A. meetings.

To Miss Maras all the worn-out typewriter ribbons and broken typewriters that we so dearly cherished.

To Miss Swanson all lost sheet music and broken piano keys.

To Mrs. Harris all the memories of the time she rang the study hall bell late, third period, in order that we might make American history class in time.

To Mr. Page all the medical supplies, tape, and bandages that he so willingly used to patch up our athletic teams.

THIRD: We hereby will and bequeath:

Donovan Anderson wills his beaten-up Oldsmobile to Jack Blair.

Pat Anderson wills her ability to flirt to Mary Anderson.

Everett Asplund wills his masculine build to Jim Carlson.

Eunice Brennan wills her numerous flirtations to Shirley Descamps.

Joanne Carlson wills her "steady" to Bessie Cook.

John Craft wills his numerous traffic tickets to Rollie Robinson.

Roberta Craig wills her broken-down piano keys to Ruth Martin.

Robert Dobbels wills his innocent appearance in class to Karl Ijams.

Keith Echelberger wills his time to cut up in study hall to Bob Kelly.

Lois Fickling wills her red hair to Joan Nelson.

Gladys Gilmore wills her pen-pals to Bobby McMullen.

Earl Grossmann wills his ability to stay home nights to Hal Dean Vincent.

Betty Munson wills her timid actions to Jo Ann Hutchinson.

Marion Naugle wills her brains and good grades to anyone who needs them.

Lavern Palmer wills his ability to date underclassmen to Larry Efaw.

Bill Phillis wills his memory of tall tales to Anita Lindell.

Everett Schnowske wills his trim, wavy hair to Jerry Metz.

Dorothy Stach wills her ability to cut a rug on a dance floor to Mr. Page.

Davy Stephens wills all the candy that he didn't consume in fifth period study hall to Don Mosher.

Gene Swenson wills his ability to keep girls fighting over him to Junior Stackhouse.

Ruth Vincent wills her short stature to Neal Lundell.

Patsy Wells wills her D. A. R. award to a deserving junior girl.

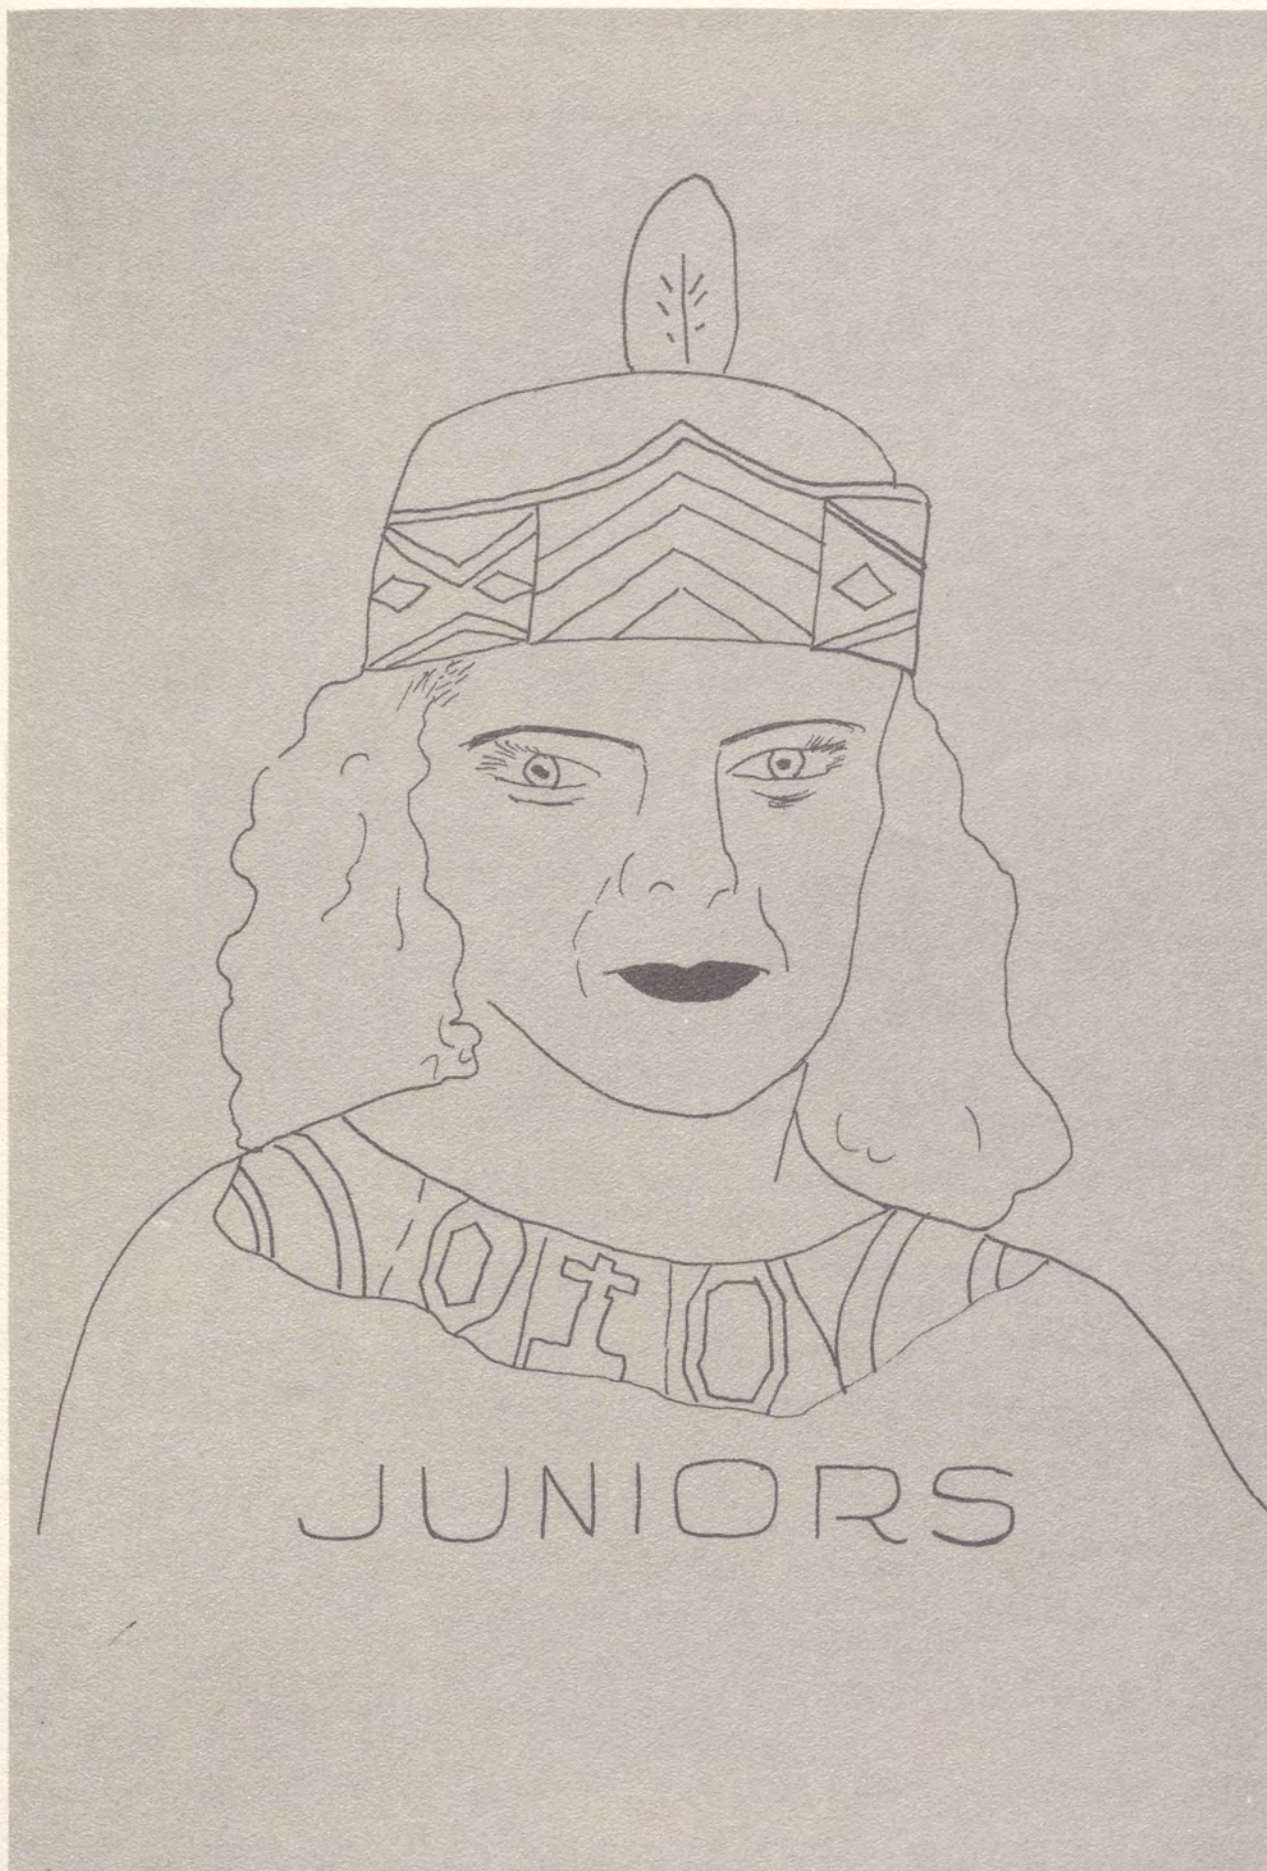

Peggy Wexell wills her Wethersfield boy friends to Shirley Burnett.

Dorothy Williams wills her long, dark hair to Fuzz Lundell.

FOURTH: We hereby nominate the faculty of C. C. U. D. S. as Executors of this our Last Will, and it is our desire that they be required to give no other than their personal bond as such executors.

Class Poem

Here's to the class of '49
A bunch of kids that are pretty fine;
We've worked and strived in every way
To earn our merits on Graduation Day.
The parties, the games, and the fun we've had
All make our parting rather sad.
Our accomplishments have not been few.
Of course we've had some setbacks, too;
The things we've learned at Cambridge High
Will remain with us as the years go by,
We're parting now the best of friends
To reach our goal—good citizens.

JUNIOR LITERARY

The Legend of the "Ju Ni Ors"

Amidst the broad fields of maize in a grove of sacred trees, an Indian village raises its wigwams. In one of the great wigwams lives the wise chieftain, "Noelmosher," with his four faithful tribes. Least in number is the tribe, the "Ju Ni Ors"; only nineteen are there, but eight braves and eleven maidens.

The tribes fight many battles and although there are few warriors in the "Ju Ni Or" tribe, they are all courageous. Perhaps "Ja Ckie" is the fleetest and can make the greatest gains. "Er Vin" has a vast knowledge in planning battles; so has been chosen as the leader in hope that he will lead them to victory. "Fo Rrest" is loved by all the tribes because he is likewise a good warrior and brave. He is both fleet and clever and is admired by all in the forest.

The great warriors are not alone in their battles because their maidens ride with them in spirit. They are proud of their braves because they know that they fight fairly. Before each battle "Be Ssie" leads the maidens in an inspiring cheer to give the warriors greater strength. After a victory, the maidens prepare a great powwow and give thanks unto Manatu.

Some of the braves do not go to battle but learn how to make their tribe stronger. "Ly Man" knows that, with the help of great Manatu, he can grow better maize and healthier steeds. He must teach the other braves this art so that they will no longer need to depend on the wild animals of the forest for their food.

Many times there are fever and sickness in the little tribe. "Do Nna" believed human suffering could be eased and wanted to learn to make medicines. She was convinced that great Manatu would help her. One night he appeared in a dream and told her to use the herbs and berries of the forest to heal her people's pain. When she awoke and did this, the people were healed. The whole tribe was very grateful to "Do Nna," and later she became a medicine woman.

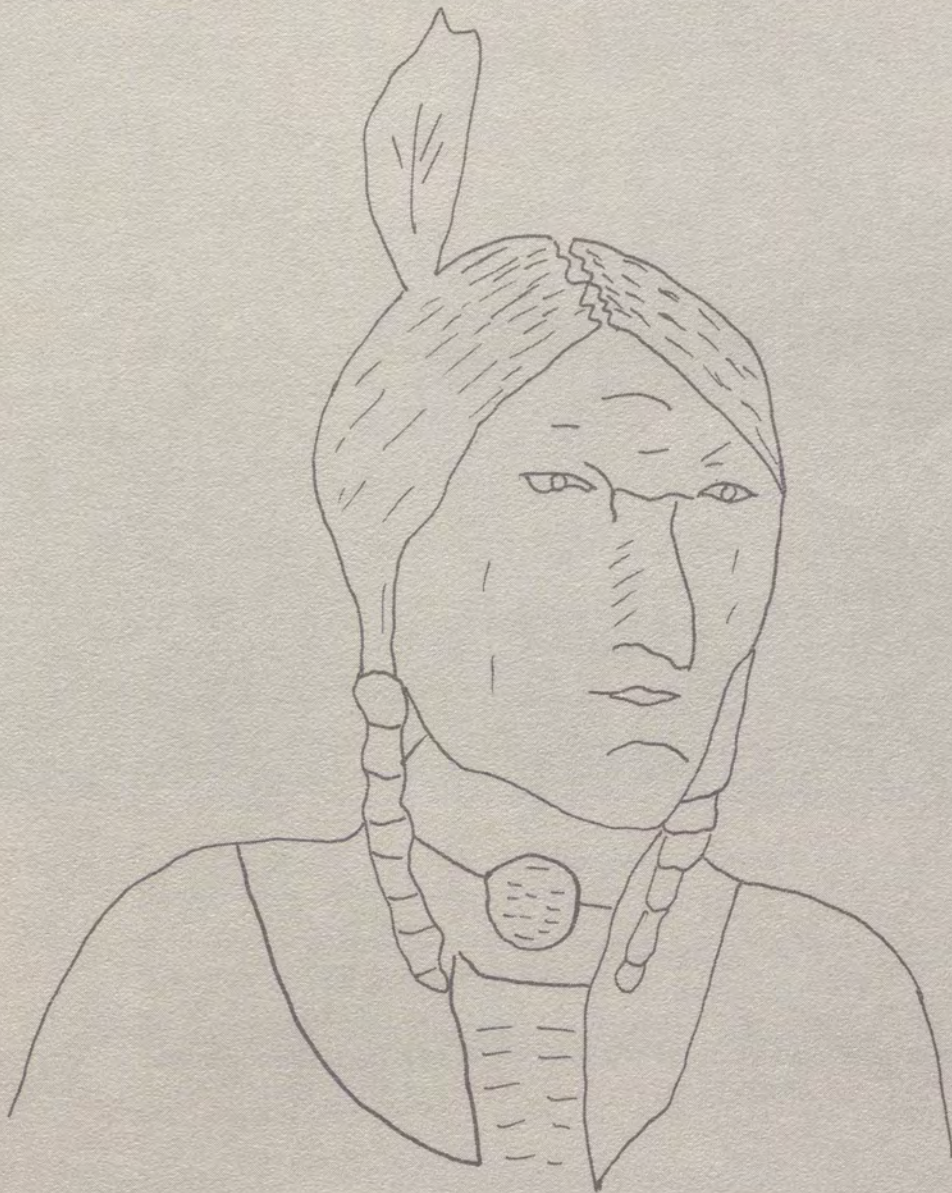

In the great wigwam is a council which must have many powwows where all the problems of the tribes are presented. "Ph Yl" and "Shi Rl Ey" were chosen by the "Jn Ni Or" tribe to attend the council.

But, alas, the great wigwam is growing old and needs repair; yet it holds many memories for the "Cam Brid Ge Hi Scho Ol" tribes; some of fun, others of tears, and others of excitement. Now they will build a new and greater wigwam where the "Ju Ni Ors" will live with all the other tribes in their "El Ninevan," the happy home of the four great tribes.

SOPHOMORE LITERARY

The Sophomore Indians

How proud I am of the Sophomore Indian Tribe of which I am a member!

Our leader, Chief Big Moon Metz, is a great warrior. His squaw, Sotso "Morning Star" Swanson is one of the beauties of the tribe. Their papoose, Little Chief McMullen, will undoubtedly be as powerful a leader as his father some day.

Soawash "Small Speech" Anderson is always the first to get up in the morning and prepare breakfast. But Lazy Boy Lindquist and Ninacawyu-suches "Surly Bear" Stephens very rarely arise from their tepees before noon. Moonglow Sellman, their mother, tries very hard to wake her sons early but meets with no success.

Whenever anyone becomes ill, he is sent to our medicine doctor, Pumukonat "Dancer" Ijams, or to the medicine woman, Dagonowede "Inexhaustible" Hutchinson. Everyone feels confident that he will be healed when he goes to medicine doctors, who are experienced at chasing away evil spirits.

With such great hunters and warriors as Yushbonu "Curly-headed" Kelly, Pinto Vincent, Fleet Foot Mosher, Wulisso "Handsome" Bjork, and Sawed-off Rushing to hunt for us, we never need to worry about plenty of game to eat. However, we need corn and other grains as well as vegetables to keep us in the best of health. Lover-of-Fun Gilmore, Little Dove Moody, Laughing Water Raifsnider, and Little Bit Reilly are the tribe's gardeners and work diligently to raise enough to feed the deserving warriors.

Giver of Spirit Schieferdecker's job is to cheer our braves before they go on a hunt or before a battle. She gives the braves energy to do their best in battle or in tracking down wild game.

Drawing Fingers Stach, Flutter Fingers Lorimer, and Matopotanka "Bear with a Big Voice" Stackhouse are especially talented members of our tribe. Drawing Fingers records all great events, of which there are many, in lovely designs on her tepee. Flutter Fingers thrills us with her music-making at ceremonial dances and other festive occasions. Matopotanka Stackhouse is the orator of the tribe. He speaks very loudly at all important pow wows. Woapasum "White Sunshine" Lindell records the history of the tribe so that accurate facts may be told about the marvelous deeds of the Sophomore Indians.

Under the guidance of "Wise One" Maras the Sophomores have accomplished great things and shall, I am sure, continue to do so for many moons to come.

FRESHMEN LITERARY

Freshiewawa

By the doors of the assembly
By the windows of the office
Lie remainders of the freshmen.
Pride of the school, the freshmen.
Of our big chief, Harvey Johnson,
Of his scribe, Miss Shirley D.
Of our chieftain, Vernon Stephens
Quite a sport, our Vernie Stephens.

All our tepees they are painted
By our artist, Stanlewatha.
His assistant, Princess Hedbloom,
Paints the horns upon the deer.

To the council we have sent him,
To the council of the students.
He represents our interests,
He interprets their meanings.
He is our wise brave Rising Sun
But "Sonny" we all call him
Just to simplify the term.

When our tribal games are held
And our warriors do all compete,
The squaws cheer their braves to victory
And sometimes accept defeat.
Helen, Ruth, and Mary A.
Ellen, Gert, and Hazel A.
Sit along the sides and cheer.
For our fine braves they do cheer.

As children of the forest
We appreciate it truly.
We enjoy walks through the forest;
Through the dark and gloomy forest.
Rollin, Janet, Lois Sterling
Went a-walking through the forest.

There in the foreboding forest
Underneath the tall, dark pine-trees
Babbles on a brook named Catherine.
(Ah! I wondered, where is Catherine?)

There a-sitting by the pine-tree
With her feet into the water
Is the maiden, Joan Nelson.
She is waiting for her lover.
Jimmy Carlson is her lover.

On the side of the great pine tree
Straight across from Joan Nelson
Sits another Indian Red Head
And her name is Marie Swan.
She's not waiting for her lover,
Because, you see, she's waiting;
Oh, how patiently she's waiting,
For her race horse to come in.

Here a-creeping through the forest
Comes the hunter, Alfred Dobbels.
As he peeks around the fir tree
He lets his arrow fly.
There's a scream from that big boulder,
A pathetic, urgent, scream.
Sally runs back to the village
With an arrow in her feather!

There a-sitting by the fire,
By the warm and cheery fire,
There a-sitting by the fire
Is the old man, Sitting Bull.
Carl Wexell is what his name is
But, because he's always sitting,
All do call him "Sitting Bull."

Lorraine Newman ate green apples.
Ate them just because of hunger.
Our witch-doctor, Larry Efaw,
Is administering the cure.

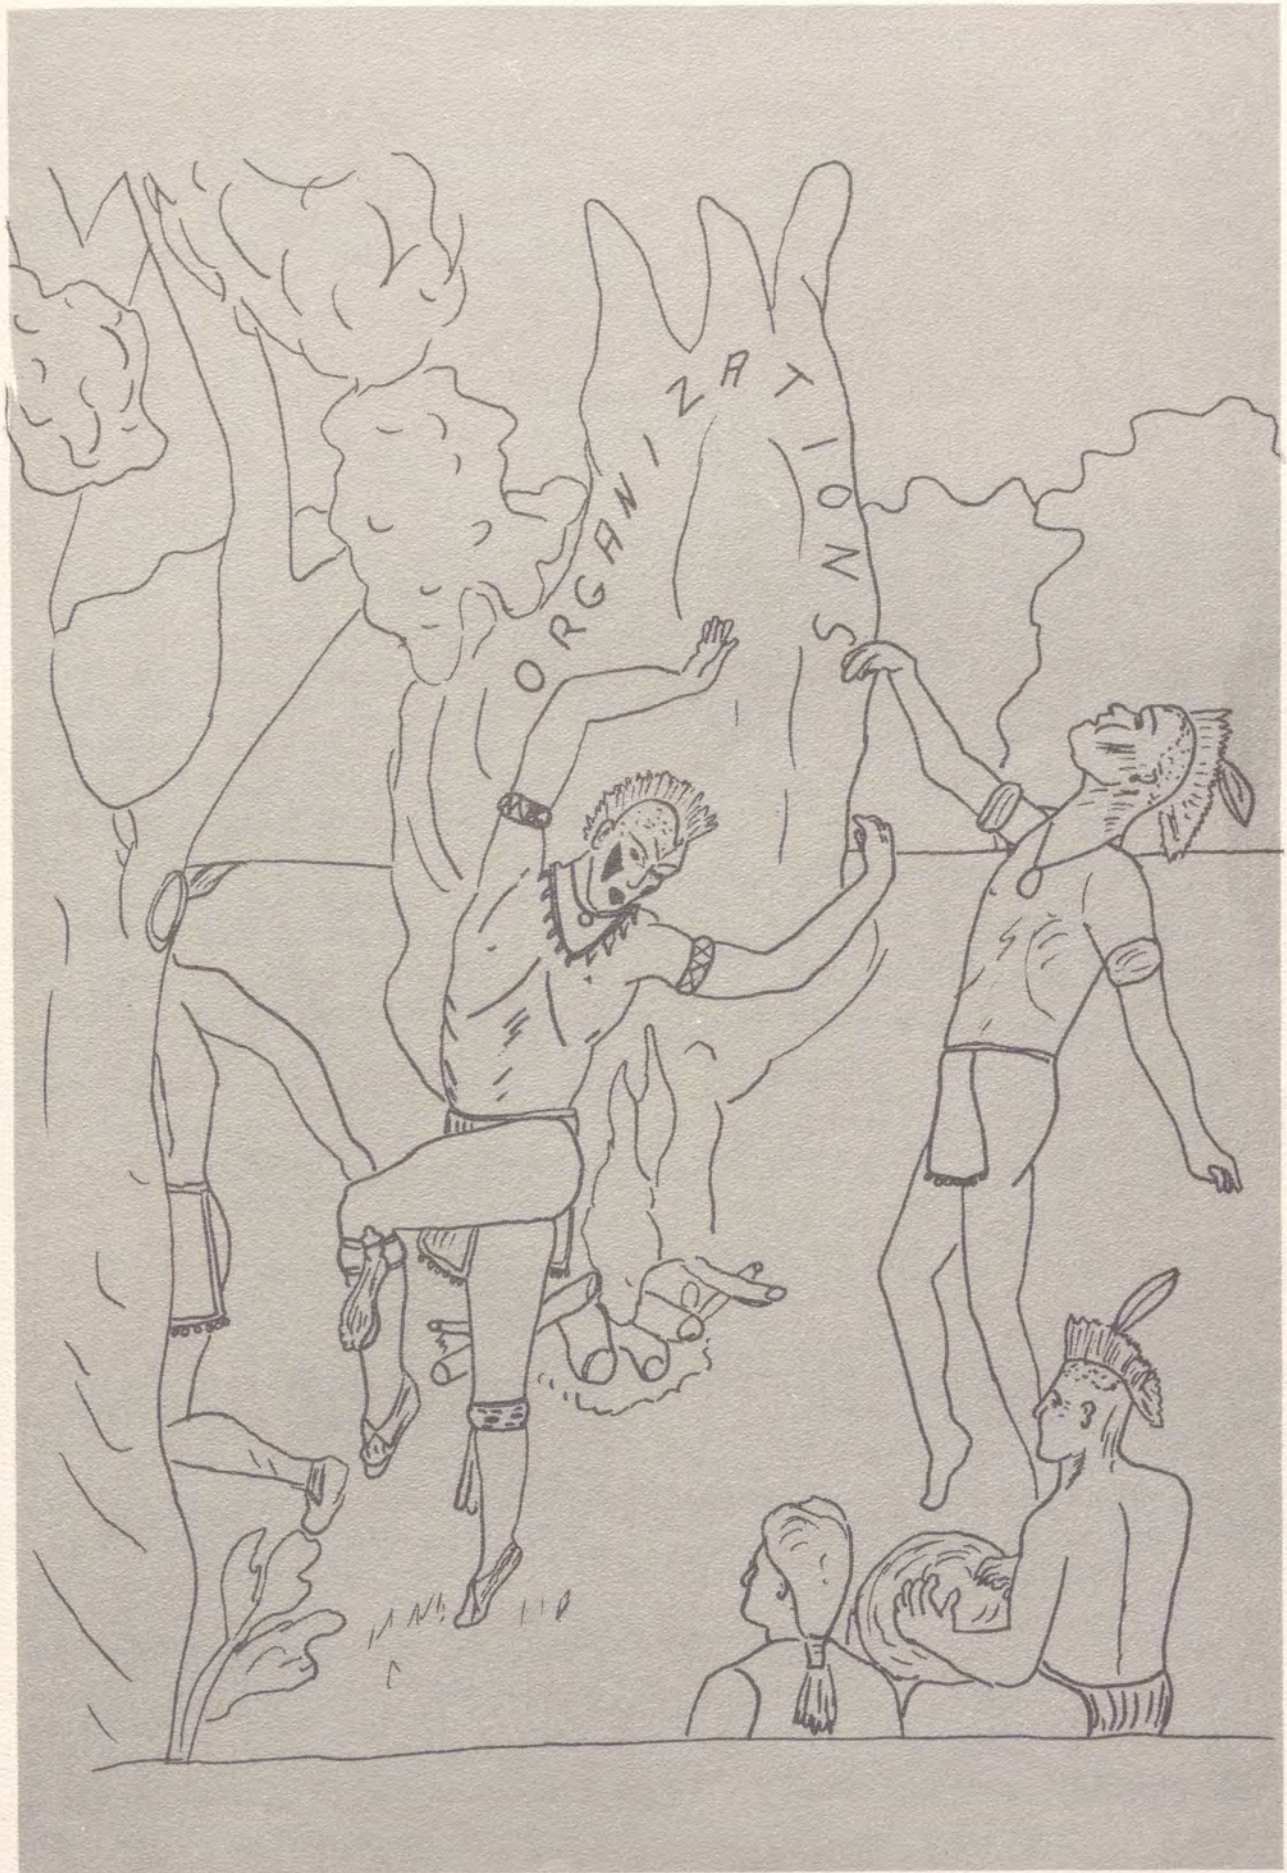

Over there, beside the fire
By the hot and smoky fire,
Stands the Indian maid, Joyce Clark,
With a blanket in her hand.
She is sending up smoke-signals
To some Atkinson brave or other.

Over here before this hogan,
By the dark and gloomy forest,
Is the totem pole of Cambridge.
Of this small but noble village.
Ah, we recognize the faces of two very noble freshies,
Neal Lundell and Donna Yarger
Have their faces on the pole.

Lois Swanson and "Berta" Thomas
Have become squaws of big business.
They have organized Jim Vinzant
To a papoose sitter's league.

By the shores of the big river
In the cool and shady forest
Sits the maiden, Princess Palmer,
With the animals and birds.
She is very busy writing
With a quill upon some birchbark.
She is writing down the legend
Of the latest freshman tribe.

The only one among us
Who's not classified as Indian;
Is Mr. Young, who's our adviser,
And who helps with our problems.

ORGANIZATIONS

The sun has set. The tom-toms beat. It is once again time for tribal organizations to come to order under chiefs and scribes. The elders of the tribes come streaming to their various meeting grounds to discuss important issues of the many moons to come.

F. F. A.

The Future Farmers of America have as usual been very active the past year. They took part in a parliamentary procedure contest and placed fourth. They also sent Ray Bjork and Myron Stackhouse to the National Convention in Kansas City, Missouri. Several of them attended the International Livestock Exposition in Chicago with their instructor, Charles Moore. A turkey was auctioned off for Thanksgiving, and the sophs won the prize for selling the most tickets. The big event of the year for this organization took place on December 10, 1948. The club sponsored the annual homecoming dance at which

JoAnn Hutchinson was crowned queen by Gene Swenson. The queen's attendants were Joan Nelson, Joan Schieferdecker, Bessie Cook, and Ruth Vincent. They were escorted by Lyman Dahlgren, Ervin Robinson, Forrest Hayes, Jerry Metz, and Myron Stackhouse. The officers are:

President—Lyman Dahlgren
Vice President—Myron Stackhouse
Secretary—Ervin Robinson
Treasurer—Forrest Hayes
Sentinel—Jack Blair
Reporter—Jerry Metz

Pep Club

The Pep Club, composed of approximately 50 girls, was under the leadership of Pat Wells this year. Some of its activities were: sponsoring food stands at games, donating $75 for the purchase of the wire recorder, and helping out with assemblies and pep sessions. The highlight of the year's activities was the Kid Party sponsored by the club. At this party Gene Swenson, Earl Grossmann, Anita Lindell, JoAnn Hutchinson, and Doris Lorimer won the prizes for being the "most kiddish." The Pep Club also had charge of the Christmas decorating in the assembly and sponsored the annual Christmas party on the last day of school before the annual holiday vacation. The officers are:

President—Patsy Wells
Vice President—Phyllis Swan
Secretary-Treasurer—Anita Lindell
Reporter—Marie Swan

Science Club

The Science Club's main project this year was photography. The members learned how to develop and enlarge pictures through the help of Mr. Young and Mr. Moore. The members planned their annual trip to Chicago during spring vacation to see various centers of interest there. The club's officers are:

President—Earl Grossmann

Vice President—Donovan Anderson

Secretary-Treasurer—Bessie Cook

Laboratory assistant—Lavern Palmer

Student Council

The Student Council is the youngest organization at C. C. H. S., being only in its second season this year. Some of its activities have been sponsoring assembly programs, pep sessions, ping pong tournaments, and having lively discussions on various school problems. Most of the members went to the Pekin District Convention at Galesburg, Illinois, in November. Its officers and members are:

President—Lavern Palmer

Vice President—Forrest Hayes

Secretary-Treasurer—Pat Wells

Representatives at Large—Donovan Anderson, Joanne Carlson

Senior Representatives — Leonard Lindell, Earl Grossmann

Junior Representatives — Shirley Burnett, Phyllis Swan

Sophomore Representatives—Jerry Metz, Doris Lorimer

Freshman Representatives — Harvey Johnson, Emery Gregory

ORGANIZATIONS

The sun has set. The tom-toms beat. It is once again time for tribal organizations to come to order under chiefs and scribes. The elders of the tribes come streaming to their various meeting grounds to discuss important issues of the many moons to come.

F. F. A.

The Future Farmers of America have as usual been very active the last year. They took part in a parliamentary procedure contest and placed fourth. They also sent Ray Bjork and Myron Stackhouse to the National Convention in Kansas City, Missouri. Several of them attended the International Livestock Exposition in Chicago with their instructor, Charles Moore. A turkey was auctioned off for Thanksgiving, and the sophs won the prize for selling the most tickets. The big event of the year for this organization took place on December 10, 1948. The club sponsored the annual homecoming dance at which

JoAnn Hutchinson was crowned queen by Gene Swenson. The queen's attendants were Joan Nelson, Joan Schieferdecker, Bessie Cook, and Ruth Vincent. They were escorted by Lyman Dahlgren, Ervin Robinson, Forrest Hayes, Jerry Metz, and Myron Stackhouse. The officers are:

President—Lyman Dahlgren
Vice President—Myron Stackhouse
Secretary—Ervin Robinson
Treasurer—Forrest Hayes
Sentinel—Jack Blair
Reporter—Jerry Metz

Pep Club

The Pep Club, composed of approximately 50 girls, was under the leadership of Pat Wells this year. Some of its activities were: sponsoring food stands at games, donating $75 for the purchase of the wire recorder, and helping out with assemblies and pep sessions. The highlight of the year's activities was the Kid Party sponsored by the club. At this party Gene Swenson, Earl Grossmann, Anita Lindell, JoAnn Hutchinson, and Doris Lorimer won the prizes for being the "most kiddish." The Pep Club also had charge of the Christmas decorating in the assembly and sponsored the annual Christmas party on the last day of school before the annual holiday vacation. The officers are:

President—Patsy Wells
Vice President—Phyllis Swan
Secretary-Treasurer—Anita Lindell
Reporter—Marie Swan

Science Club

The Science Club's main project this year was photography. The members learned how to develop and enlarge pictures through the help of Mr. Young and Mr. Moore. The members planned their annual trip to Chicago during spring vacation to see various centers of interest there. The club's officers are:

President—Earl Grossmann

Vice President—Donovan Anderson

Secretary-Treasurer—Bessie Cook

Laboratory assistant—Lavern Palmer

Student Council

The Student Council is the youngest organization at C. C. H. S., being only in its second season this year. Some of its activities have been sponsoring assembly programs, pep sessions, ping pong tournaments, and having lively discussions on various school problems. Most of the members went to the Pekin District Convention at Galesburg, Illinois, in November. Its officers and members are:

President—Lavern Palmer

Vice President—Forrest Hayes

Secretary-Treasurer—Pat Wells

Representatives at Large—Donovan Anderson, Joanne Carlson

Senior Representatives — Leonard Lindell, Earl Grossmann

Junior Representatives — Shirley Burnett, Phyllis Swan

Sophomore Representatives—Jerry Metz, Doris Lorimer

Freshman Representatives — Harvey Johnson, Emery Gregory

Band

What would life be without music? The band furnishes stirring marches at games and concerts. Under the leadership of John Watler, its officers are:

President—Phyllis Swan

Vice President—Shirley Burnett

Secretary-Treasurer — Doris Lorimer

Uniform custodians—Marie Swan,
JoAnn Hutchinson

Librarians—Donna Ladd, Roberta
Craig

There has been a new addition to the band this year; namely, a section of baton twirlers. They are Pat Matheny, Joan Schieferdecker, Gloria Stach, Ellen Grossmann, and Jerry Metz. Mr. Moore has charge of their instruction.

Boys' Chorus

Even the boys in C. C. H. S. like to sing. Their officers are:

President—Bill Phillis

Librarian—Jerry Metz

Accompanist—Donald Mosher

Boys' Double Quartet

Miss Swanson chose eight boys to sing in the double quartet. They are:

Everett Asplund

Karl Ijams

Donovan Anderson

Jerry Metz

Gene Swenson

Forrest Hayes

Earl Grossmann

Bob Kelly

Don Mosher, accompanist

Viking Staff

The "Viking" staff, whose job it is to publish this book, sponsored the Jamboree on November 20 to make money for the publication. This proved very successful as $650 was realized on admissions and the various concessions. A king and queen were crowned by the chairman of the queen booth, Bessie Cook. They were the junior candidates, Phyllis Swan and Ervin Robinson. The attendants were Pat Anderson, Everett Asplund, Phyllis Swanson, Karl Ijams, Shirley Descamps, and Emery Gregory. The members of the staff are:

Editor-in-Chief—Earl Grossmann

Assistant Editor—Forrest Hayes

Business Manager—Patsy Wells

Assistant Business Manager—

Sextet

Another group out of the first chorus is the high school sextet. Those who sing in this organization are:

Dorothy Williams

Shirley Burnett

Pat Anderson

Mary Thorp

Bessie Cook

Joanne Carlson

Phyllis Swan, accompanist

First and Second Chorus

The girls in high school are divided into two musical groups, the first and second chorus. The first chorus is composed of junior and senior girls while the second chorus is made up of freshmen and sophomore girls. The officers of these groups are:

FIRST CHORUS

President—Lois Fickling

Librarian—Peggy Wexell

Accompanists—Ruth Vincent, Roberta Craig

SECOND CHORUS

President—Doris Lorimer

Librarian—Anita Lindell

Accompanist—Doris Lorimer

Melodiers

From the first chorus, Miss Swanson chose twelve girls to sing in the Melodiers. They are:

Dorothy Williams

Shirley Burnett

Joyce Lundell

Gladys Gilmore

Roberta Craig

Pat Anderson

Mary Thorp

Ruth Vincent

Peggy Wexell

Betty Munson

Bessie Cook

Joan Carlson

Jean Rosenstone, accompanist

Treble Ensemble

The second chorus also has a sextet known as the Treble Ensemble.

These girls are accompanied by Helen Pierce. They are:

Phyllis Swanson

Janet Lundell

Carol Palmer

Doris Lorimer

JoAnn Hutchinson

Betsey Hedbloom

Projection Club

The Projection Club has charge of the new slide machine, the microphone, the movie projector, and the wire recorder. Its members are:

ATHLETICS

CAMBRIDGE 34 — HILLSDALE 12

We opened our season by meeting and defeating Hillsdale. In this game we showed a lot of power with Asplund going through the line for four touchdowns. Blair added one more to the total, and Palmer made good one of the kicks for extra points to complete our scoring.

CAMBRIDGE 7 — ORION 6

Our traditional rival, Orion, played us next, and we had to play one of the best games that we played all year to beat them. It was one of the greatest defensive games that was seen during the year. Anderson was the only Cambridge player able to cross the goal line, and he added the extra point that beat Orion. Tubby Asplund was severely hurt in this game and was affected the rest of the year.

CAMBRIDGE 12 — VIOLA 41

We next journeyed to Viola with high hopes of returning with a victory and ran smack into a hornet's nest. With Asplund out of the game they were able to run through our line, and this they did very effectively. Blair scored both of our touchdowns.

CAMBRIDGE 14 — SHERRARD 34

We returned home and ran into another well-balanced attack that left us feeling the need of Asplund backing up the line. Anderson scored both of our touchdowns, and Palmer added another two points with his kick.

CAMBRIDGE 53 — ALWOOD 14

We got back into form the next game and soundly trounced Alwood. The reserves played a goodly portion of the game and showed that we have good prospects for the coming year. Asplund scored one T. D., Metz two, Anderson one, and Blair four. Palmer added four extra points and Robinson one.

CAMBRIDGE 24 — ATKINSON 6

Playing the best game of the season, we completely stopped Atkinson's famed passing attack and held them to one lone touchdown. Grossmann, who had been playing end all year, switched to defensive tailback and played the best game of his career, intercepting two long passes and converting one of them into a touchdown. The rest of the scoring was done by Anderson, who scored two touchdowns, and Blair, who scored one.

CAMBRIDGE 74 — NEW WINDSOR 31

In the highest scoring game ever seen in the conference we completely routed New Windsor. Every one of the line scored in this game with Palmer, our captain and center, scoring two touchdowns. The rest of the scoring was as follows:

Touchdowns—Robinson two, Phillis one, Anderson three, Blair four.
Extra points—Anderson, Palmer, Mosher, Phillis, two each.

BASKETBALL

The Cambridge basketball squad finished its season by winning 4 out of the last 6 games although it had a 9 wins-16 losses record for the year. The team had five returning letter men for the '48-'49 season—namely, "Tubby" Asplund, "Bush" Anderson, "Pee-Wee" Palmer, Forrest Hayes, Earl Grossmann. Last year's reserves saw several of its members gain varsity berths.

The best game of the year was played against the R. O. V. A. squad when Cambridge was beaten 41 to 40. Most of the losses were quite close, being from one to ten points.

This year's letter winners are Bill Phillis, Len Lindell, Gene Swenson, Earl Grossmann, "Pee-Wee" Palmer, "Bush" Anderson, "Tubby" Asplund, all of whom are seniors; Forrest Hayes, junior; Jerry Metz and Don Mosher, sophomores.

Cambridge won third place in the corn belt tourney at Orion. They also went to the finals in the Atkinson District Meet where they were beaten by the host quintet.

Jerry Metz won the free throw trophy by bagging an average of 58%. Earl Grossmann, captain of the Vikings, was elected to the Corn Belt All-Star squad at a guard position.

Conference Track Meet

Cambridge placed fourth in the conference track meet just one-half point behind Viola, which scored $24\frac{1}{2}$ points.

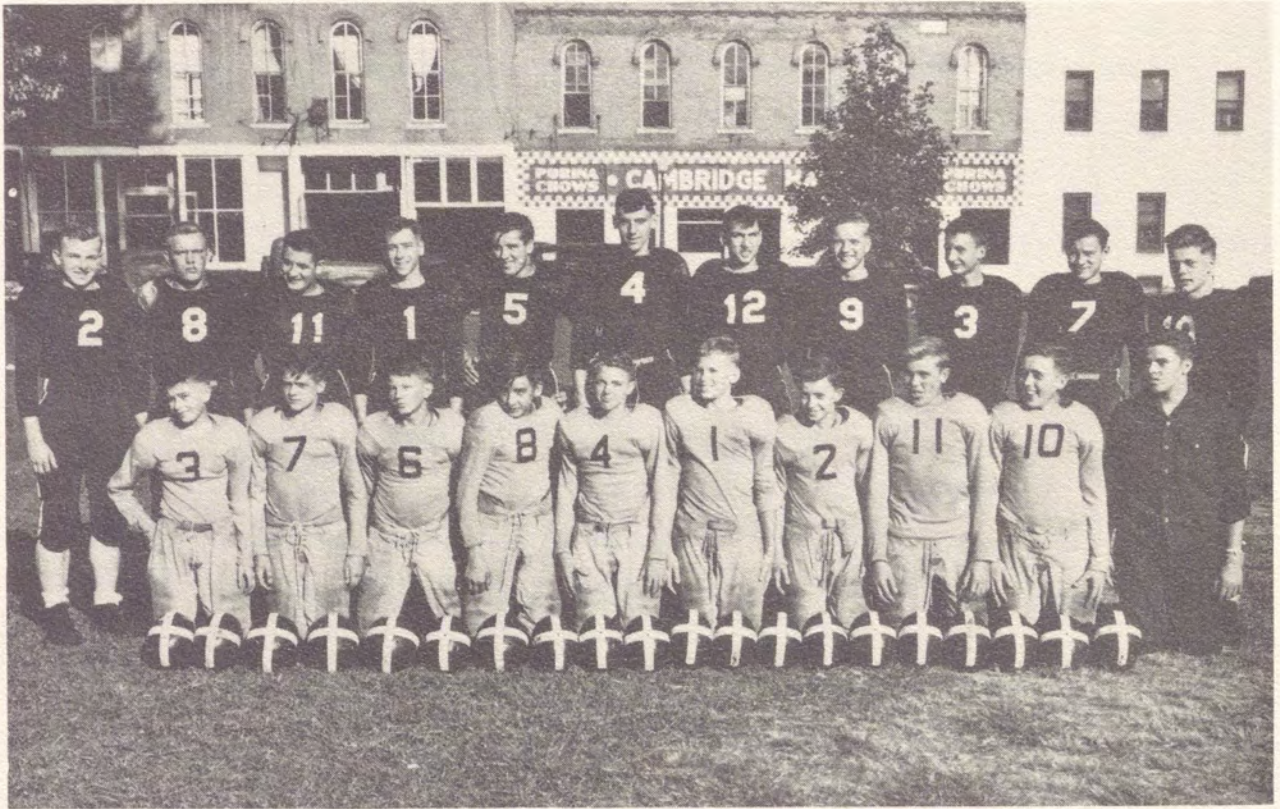

Orion	45
Sherrard	$38\frac{1}{2}$
Viola	$24\frac{1}{2}$
Cambridge	24

The scoring for Cambridge was as follows:

Swanson, first in the half-mile second in the 440; Anderson, fourth in the 100 yard dash; Grossmann, fourth in the high-jump; Blair, third in the half-mile; Dahlgren, fifth in the mile.

The Freshman-Sophomore relay team composed of Metz, Robinson, Hayes, and Blair took second place; and the Varsity relay team composed of Anderson, Metz, Grossmann, and Swanson took third place.

GRADES

THE LITTLE REDSKINS

We can't forget the ones who will someday join our big tribe. Among our Indian children are young warriors who enter in contests with other tribes, just as their elders do. In basketball, they train and practice until they become so accurate that they seldom miss the target.

There are families, however, who live too far away to enable their children to attend the five-day school meetings in the chief's camp. These children, therefore, assemble together in many little groups in our territory to receive their education. After so many moons, they report to the chief. In this way he learns of how they are progressing.

Grade Basketball

The Cambridge Grade School Basketball team had a very successful year. They won sixteen games and lost three. Of course we had to keep up the good record the grade school team has had for the past few years. We won the tournament for the third year straight and tied for the conference. We are very glad we had the help of a swell coach, Coach Page; and of course our captain, Russell Reed, helped us a lot, too. We all wish the team next year loads of luck. We will not forget about the cheerleaders who inspired us to victory.

Humor

Two farmers met on a country road and pulled up their teams.

"Si," said Josh, "I've got a mule with distemper. What did you give that one of yours when he had it?"

"Turpentine. Giddap!"

A week later they met again.

"Say, Si, gave my mule turpentine, and it killed him."

"Killed mine, too. Giddap!"

"Quick, Doctor, do something! I was playing a harmonica and swallowed it."

"Be calm, sir, and be thankful you were not playing the piano."

She: "I ought to leave you and go home to Mother."

He (angrily): "Well, why don't you?"

She: "I can't. She's left father and is coming here."

Definition: research—a blind man in a dark room hunting for a black cat that isn't there.

Stableboy (to new rider): Would you like the Texas saddle or the English saddle?

New Rider: What's the difference?

Stableboy: Well, the Texas saddle has a horn and the English saddle hasn't.

New Rider: I'll take the English saddle. I don't expect to be in heavy traffic.

The part of an auto that causes more accidents than any other is the nut that holds the steering wheel.

John: I just knocked the big marble clock off the mantle!

Mother: Did it stop?

John: No, it went straight on through the floor to the basement

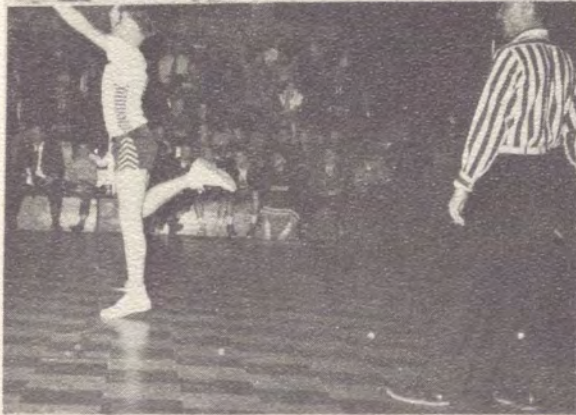

Johnny: My father is a doctor. I can be sick for nothing.

Jimmie: Well, mine's a preacher; so I can be good for nothing.
