These men who are responsible for "Gitten us here" are our Bus Drivers: FRONT ROW: R. Young, A. Carlberg, E. Palmer, J. Robertson, C. Manning. BACK ROW: L. Peterson, M. Becker.

And here they are, working in the kitchen to prepare a meal. D. Tucker, S. Neumann, R. Steffen, C. Wilson, and V. Boberg.

Yes, the school does get messy, but Martin Nelson and Bob Burns are always there when they are needed. Many a student and teacher has "hunted down" Bob or Martin.

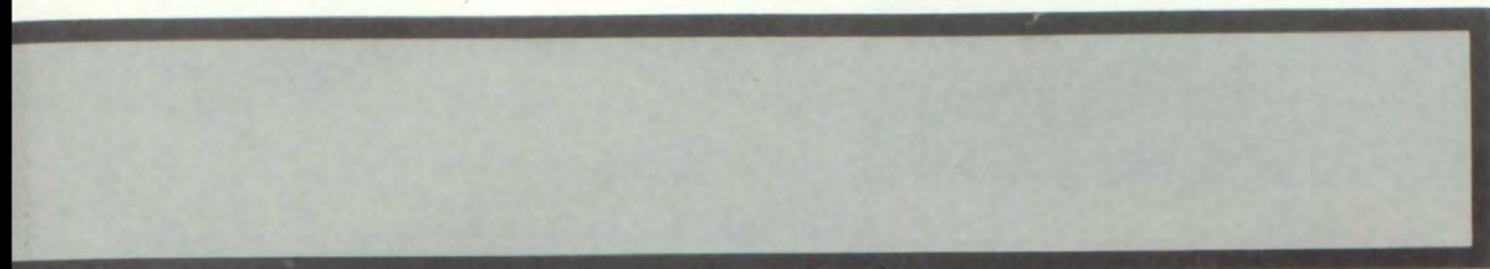

Mrs. Palmer comes in after school to help ease the work load. We are sorry we do not have a picture of her.

That's it girls--get the floor good and clean.

When the '68 seniors entered the doors of CHS for their last year of high school there were many memorable thoughts of the past three years. Everyone anticipated the events that were to make '68 memorable as well.

As freshman the class of '68 enjoyed initiation and all the new experiences of being freshmen.

When the sophomore year rolled around everyone was more sure of himself and ready to really get out and win the world. Needless to say that didn't happen, but they did succeed in winning the Viking Carnival by passing all previous money making records.

The junior year was a big one for the class. First came class rings, the Homecoming and the parade, in which the junior float got first place. Carnival time rolled around again, but the juniors were defeated by the sophomores. Sweetheart Ball passed and the class play "The Skeleton Walks" was presented. The prom banquet in the cafeteria set the mood for the dance entitled "Castle in the Clouds." After the dance the couples went to the bowling alley for a movie and then to Valley View Club for a buffet.

The senior year came and went all too quickly as far as most of the seniors were concerned. The senior skip day, Class Night, homecoming, carnival, and many other activities were enjoyed by the seniors for the last time at CHS. Straw votes and Honors Assembly ended the year and everyone was surprised by the awards. Graduation came and memories.

What a shot!

Our days at CHS are filled with studies and activities . These activities involve not only students but everyone in the school.

We, of the Viking staff of 1968 hope that you will find in this Viking Annual a little of all these activities (and studies!)

Who knows, you may see yourself in one of the candid pictures . Watch carefully!

JUNIORS

Mr. Dennis, the student teacher, shows Dave Hultgren how to make a carbon copy.

September at C.H.S. brought the juniors back to school as upper-classmen, entitled to more respect than they had as sophomores. School this year meant many new activities and duties such as class play, class rings, National Merits Scholarship Test, Statewide test for juniors, and Prom.

The first project of this year's junior class was the float for Homecoming entitled "Bury the Rockets". After Homecoming, they had a work-day and a pancake supper to make money for Carnival. The attendants were Joe Moriarity and Mary Evans.

Under the direction of Mr. and Mrs. Bredthauer, the class play, "If Mother Only Knew", was a tremendous success. The proceeds of the play and a bake sale went for financing the Prom, which everyone thoroughly enjoyed.

After the final activities of the year, the juniors bade farewell to the seniors and smiled in expectation of their coming senior year.

SOPHOMORES

The sophomore English class has a caterpillar race to illustrate a story they have read.

The sophomores are now in full swing with the activities at good old CHS.

The sophomores started the year off with a bang. A lot of boys went out for football and quite a few were in band. We also had two girls on the Fresh-Soph cheerleading squad.

As the year progressed Homecoming loomed in everyone's mind. We hardworking sophomores decided to enter a float and, after long hard hours of work won first place.

Next came Carnival and after some more hard work our two money making projects paid off as Ann Penstone and Ron Anderson were crowned king and queen. This marks two years in a row for our class to win carnival.

Kathy Stahl and Dave Sherrard were our two candidates in March for the annual FFA-FHA Sweetheart Ball.

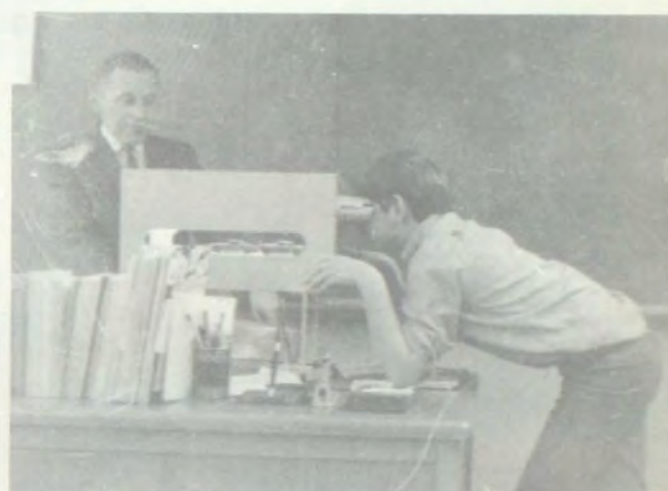

As the year came to a close we all looked forward with eagerness to being upperclassmen next year.

FRESHMAN

Marching lively, the Freshmen enjoyed Marching Band.

The first of this year was full of excitement for the Freshmen. Finding classes, lockers, and just where everything was located.

The year began with our initiation dance that was full of fun for everyone. People running around counting boards, pushing pennies, and Seniors giving orders.

We spent many long hours working on our first float for Homecoming. We received a second place on it. Our Homecoming candidates were Glenna Arndt and Paul Johnson.

Fresh-Soph Hop candidates were Bev Wexell, Julie Fickling, Ellen Nelson, Debbie Anderson, Linda Bueseling, Kevin Gustafson, Bob Lindburg, Paul Johnson, Roger Scott, and John Reppert. Reigning over these were Julie Fickling and Kevin Gustafson.

For Sweetheart Ball the candidates were Glenna Arndt and Everett Schnowske.

Daddy Date Night was full of fun also. The FHA freshmen girls had to dress like bunnies, step on mouse traps, eat eggs and obey the orders of all the other girls in FHA.

At the end of the year at CHS, the freshmen should be able to accept new responsibilities in becoming sophomores.

STUDENT COUNCIL

One of the most important organizations of CHS is the Student Council, which is one of the most active. The Student Council is a student governing body. It allows the students to voice their opinions through their representatives in the Council.

In addition to governing the school, the Student Council plans the Homecoming Activities, Parents' Night, and sock hops throughout the year. It also sponsors a Bermuda Day, a pancake breakfast, a dress up day, and other activities during Student Council week. Also this year, a number of Student Council members attended the convention in Chicago.

Each year the officers of the Student Council are elected by the student body. During campaign time, the halls (and students of C.H.S. are decorated with posters, buttons, and signs. The Student Council is under the excellent supervision of Mr. Don Palmer.

HONOR SOCIETY

C. Mecum, Sec.; L. Wahlheim, Reporter; J. Moriarity, V-Pres.; S. Hultgren, Pres.

The students of CHS who maintain an 88 average and meet high standards of service, leadership, and character are granted with a membership to Honor Society. The purpose of Honor Society is to reward academic achievement and worthy leadership.

The main activity sponsored by the Honor Society is the Christmas Dance during the Yule season. Mr. Buhlig and Mr. Nordstrom serve as sponsors for this group.

Ah, the trials that a writer must go through for her reader!

The Maroon and White staff, this year, was sponsored by Mrs. Bredthauer. One student is chosen as a representative from each class. These students report the latest news each week for their fellow students and the community. Their column appears in the Chronicle. Also appearing is a potpourri article. These articles have ranged anywhere from the most serious of information to the humorous side of life.

MAROON AND WHITE

Library Club officers: V-Pres., D. Johnson, Sec., J. Nelson, Pres., C. Mecum.

The purpose of Library Club is to train students to become librarians in the study halls. Their duties consist of checking out books, collecting fines, distributing magazines, and helping students find books. Student librarians also check the reference room and make displays for the bulletin boards.

To be a member of Library Club is an honor. Students may join Library Club only by special invitation. New members are usually invited the second semester of their freshman year. These members are called "cadets."

This year there are 48 members. Mrs. Kenward and Miss Koehne are sponsors.

AFS

The American Field Service has sponsored three exchange students in the last four years at CHS.

This year the AFS committee sponsored an AFS week at CHS. We invited exchange students from surrounding schools to visit school and speak at an assembly. Also during the week, students were asked to wear flags signifying the nationality of their ancestry.

VIKING STAFF

--And here we find our business manager hard at work, oops!

The Viking Staff is a chosen group of upperclassmen. They have the unrewarding job of compiling the yearbook. The editor leads the staff and organizes its duties. This years art editor created Maid Marion and Victor, the Knightly Viking. The business manager planned and organized the 1967 Viking Carnival. Our diligent copy editor attempted the impossible job of revising the copy. The photographers were kept busy taking pictures of activities around the school.

Miss Koehne was the Viking sponsor.

SCIENCE CLUB

The Viking Science Explorers is an organization established to give students an opportunity to study and experiment more thoroughly any field of science. In order to join this club, a student must write a letter of application explaining his reasons for wishing to be a member. With the sponsor, Mr. Norman Place, the club meets in the evenings. At each meeting a program is given which is developed upon a specialized phase of science. In addition to the programs, each member is required to have a science project and to display it at the various science fairs. The main purposes of VSE is to help students develop their interest and knowledge in the vast scientific field.

This year's officers are left to right, B. Palmer, reporter; P. Sears, sec.-treasurer; C. Mecum, vice-pres.; and M. Anderson, President.

The Spanish Club was reorganized this year under the supervision of Mrs. Decker who sponsors the group. The officers undertook the task of revising the constitution for acceptance by the members. Mr. Bill Lee, a guest, came to demonstrate the construction of a pinata. Later, in January, there was a Christmas party as which the pinata was displayed.

G.A.A.

The Girl's Athletic Association is an organization open to all high school girls. Through G.A.A., each girl has an opportunity to meet new friends and to broaden her interests in athletics. Competing in the various sports gives each girl a chance to learn and practice sportsmanship.

Under the supervision of Mrs. June Fitzpatrick, the sponsor, the G.A.A. members meet once a week after school. Throughout the year G.A.A. members actively participate in various sports, such as archery, hockey, bowling, basketball, and golf. Besides these after school activities and tournaments, there are freshmen initiation, workshops, playdays, and summer camps.

Each time a member goes to an activity, she receives points for the hours put in. On accumulation of a certain number of points by the end of the year, the member can receive either a local or a state award. Many trophies are also given at this time to recognize outstanding participation and skill.

This year the FTA was under the supervision of Mrs. McGill. In October, the FTA honored National Education Week by having the annual Teachers Tea, and by presenting each teacher with an apple.

The programs throughout the year ranged from learning about Japan to finding out about the various scholarships that are offered to college bound students.

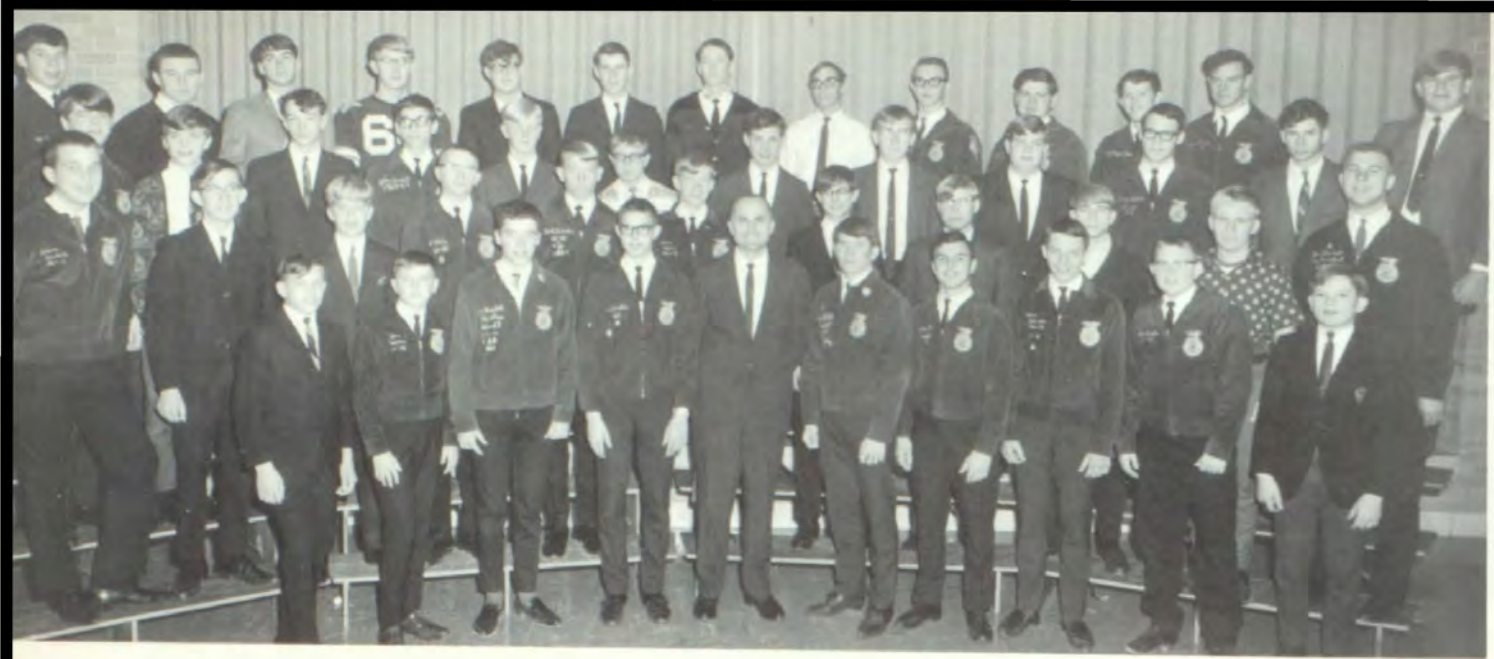

The main purpose of the FTA is to interest students in the field of teaching and to promote better student-teacher relation.

A typical FFA meeting in the Ag room.

The Future Farmers of America is a national organization dedicated to helping students interested in pursuing a future in Agri-business. The advisor of the local chapter is Mr. Wohrley. He encourages the members to participate in completing projects such as home improvement and raising livestock. Chapter members also attend Public Speaking, Parliamentary Procedure, and Judging contests throughout the state. It also sponsors the Sweetheart Ball jointly with the FHA.

The basic goals of the Future Homemakers of America are to work towards developing better homes and a better standard of community living for the future. The FHA'ers, with the help of their advisor, Mrs. Woitel, have been doing just this. They were fortunate to have Charlotte Erdman represent Cambridge as 2nd Vice President of Section 10. Mrs. Gresch, Mrs. Reed and Mrs. Peterson were the chapter mothers.

This year's activities have included: a sock hop, a bake sale, a tour of WIU, a needy family drive, an officers training school, a carnival food stand, a caroling party, Daddy-Daughter Date Night, Sweet-heart Ball, 'Sadie-Hawkins Dance, FHA Week, a rally, and the Mother-Daughter Banquet.

FNA

The Future Nurses of America is an organization established to interest students in becoming nurses.

The purpose of the club is to acquaint members with the opportunities in nursing and provide thorough background for nursing.

This year at Christmas the FNA club filled large boxes with home-made cookies and candy and fresh fruit. Those boxes were presented to the community nursing home with a short program and several Christmas Carols.

The club holds monthly meetings under the guidance of Mrs. Ruth Dahlberg. During these meetings guest speakers talk on their fields of medicine and present films.

Although pep club isn't always the most talked about club, it plays a very important part at C.H.S. Each year more people seem to take an interest in pep club.

The purpose of pep club is to create enthusiasm and good sportsmanship. Although we were very fortunate in sports this year, and managed to usually bring home the firsts, when we did lose the games, we let the boys know we were behind them all the way.

A special sportsmanship song was adopted for before all the basketball games.

VARSITY CLUB

With physical fitness being the cry of this modern era, emphasis on athletics is stronger. At CHS the Varsity Club promotes good sportsmanship and athletics.

The Varsity Club is an honorary organization whose members have won a varsity letter in one of the four major sports. Under the supervision of Mr. Goff, Mr. Fuhr, and Mr. Devinney, the Varsity Club sponsored two money-making projects this year. The first was the annual Faculty-Varsity Club basketball game. This game is one of the high points of the year; as expected, the faculty won this exciting game. The second was the Donkey Basketball Game. It was a first sponsored by the club, and was a big success. The money earned from these two projects is being used to purchase film to film the football and basketball games and to pay the way for the boys to the State Championship Basketball Tourney held every year at Urbana.

CHEERLEADERS

This year students at CHS had nine very capable cheerleaders to arouse spirit and enthusiasm.

Carol, Sharon, and Rhea won a trophy at the State Fair and were finalists in various cheerleading events. Mrs. Woitel was the squads sponsor.

All these girls did a fine job.

BAND

Mr. Burrus directs at the annual Christmas concert.

Three bands represent C.H.S.: marching band, concert band, dance band. The marching band plays at half-time during the football games. Before each home game, the band works hard every morning under the direction of Arlys Fickling, head majorette. Outside of the facts of wet feet, drooping hair, and hurrying for your next class, the students really enjoy putting on a show for the public.

Homecoming really sets the band through its paces by performing at the pep rally, the parade and the game. This year the game was in the afternoon, and the band put on a marvelous show. Also, this year Mr. Burrus organized a dance band to play between games during basketball season. The kids really practiced hard, and turned out excellent performances for the public.

Under the direction of Mr. Burrus, concert band puts in many long hours of practice toward contest numbers and putting on concerts for the residents of Cambridge. This year a new organization, The Music Boosters, came to C.H.S. To raise money for this club, the band hosted the University of Illinois band and the Moline Boys Choir.

CHORUS

The choral organizations of Cambridge High School perform at the Christmas Concert, Spring Concert and the choral festival with other conference schools. This year the festival was held at CHS.

The mixed chorus meets twice a week during the first period. The boys and girls chorus meets one hour a week during the activity hour.

There are three special choral groups: the Senior Octet, the Barbershoppers, and the Freshman Octet. These groups perform for concerts and for PTA and local meetings.

The Barbershoppers: T. Reed, S. Hultgren, S. Benzon, J. Moriarity.

FRESH.-SOPH. TEAM

Coach Arcand's fresh-soph squad had a good season this year. Coaches Arcand and Devinney had their team in top gear. Although the team did not have the exceptional year that they did last year they still fought hard the whole season. With some hard fighting freshman coming back next year C.H.S. should see some more top notch football games.

Cambridge intercepts a pass.

Coach helps an injured player on the field.

The Varsity team had an exceptional year. The team finished the season with a 6--1--0 record. A non-conference game against Erie was lost 13--7 during the last minutes of the game. The squad was benefited this year by the addition of two new coaches, Mr. Carl Goff and Mr. Ray Fuhr, who led the team to an undefeatable season. The last game of the year was the deciding one because it was against Sherrard. Both teams entered this final game with a 6--0 record so it meant an extra hard battle in order to decide the conference champions. The victory went to Cambridge 19--14 along with our second Conference Championship in Cambridge football history.

A successful year was enjoyed by the Cambridge Vikings, which was coached by Al Arcand. The season was well played by the whole team which was led by forwards; Tom Reed and Roy DeVoss, Guards; Mike Johnson and Larry Stahl, and Center; Ed Hedbloom. The season was tarnished by only five conference losses. Because of this, Cambridge ended second in the conference standings. As far as tournaments go, the team won the Cambridge Invitational Holiday Tournament as well as placing fourth in the Conference Tournament. In the I.H.S.A. State Tournament, Cambridge won the District by defeating Warren of Monmouth, 64--58. The Vikings then advanced into Regional play where they lost the Championship game to Galva 54--53. Coach Al Arcand is expecting another exceptional year next season with many experienced squad members back again.

BASKETBALL 1968

Coach Devinney saw some hard games for any coach to lose this year. The team's first loss came when Dick Lindburg, their 6' 5" center, left with a foot injury. From then until midway through the season the team had a rough time finding both the basket as well as the boards. Since the team had lost a sophomore player, Coach Devinney had to find some replacements in form of a couple of hard fighting freshmen. With these as well as some other experienced players returning next year, CHS can count on some fast moving games.

HOMECOMING 1967

Oct. 6--The cold, clear night air was filled with dancing sparks from the bonfire. Coaches, players, cheerleaders, and fans worked up spirit for the next day's Homecoming game.

The morning of October 7 brought ominous skies, but luckily the parade was not rained out. By afternoon, skies had cleared. Bright Viking spirits matched the day as Cambridge defeated Rockridge in the first afternoon Homecoming game ever held at CHS.

In the evening, proud students and alumni celebrated victory at the Homecoming.

The second place float entered by the Freshman.

One of the great plays that helped CHS win its victory.

The third place float entered by the Juniors.

VIKING CARNIVAL

Step right up! Come one, come all! Win yourselves a teddy bear, a cane, or a cake! Such was the 1967 Viking Carnival. The was hardly recognizable as it was transformed into a magnificent midway.

The theme of the carnival this year was "Help make our annual more popular than . . . " Each booth tried to make our annual more popular by giving away more desirable prizes.

This year's program, The Dave Martin Show starring David Hultgren, was highlighted by visits from a karate expert, an English bobby, and two jungle "snow" makers.

The highlight of the evening for the classes came with the crowning of the king and queen of the carnival. The winners are chosen from the individual classes on the basis of how much money their class turns in from their various projects. This year's winner was the Sophomore Class; and their candidates, Ann Penstone and Ronnie Anderson, were crowned. The other candidates were as follows: Glenna Arndt and Paul Johnson, Freshman; Mary Evans and Joe Moriarity, Juniors; and Rosemary Binno and Steve Benzon, Seniors.

All in all, the carnival was a huge success and everyone is anxiously awaiting a bigger and better one next year.

The Sophomores have just crowned their candidates King and Queen of Carnival.

High above the gym was cupid's perch.

The decorations were beautiful.

SWEETHEART BALL

The hearts spinned gayly all evening.

The Future Homemakers and Future Farmers helped Cupid cast his spell as couples danced beneath "Red Hearts In the Moonlight." Bob Hodgett's Orchestra added the romance of music to the evening.

As the FFA and FHA royalty candidates entered the gym, Cupid took dead aim. His targets turned out to be Linda Johnson, who was crowned Sweetheart, and Rodger Palmer, who was crowned Heart-throb. They were crowned by Ron Reed and Theresa DeMay. The other members of the court were Jim Grader and Rhea Reed, Duke and Duchess; Tim Hopkins and Pam Anerson, Prince and Princess; Dave Sherrard and Kathy Stahl; and Everett Schnowske and Glenna Arndt.

The moon was still shining brightly when thoughts of curfew began to break the romantic spell. As couples left, they took home with them memories.

The band did a fine job.

JUNIOR CLASS PLAY

Mrs. Bredthauer adds the finishing touches to Paula make-up.

This year's Junior Class presented a comedy in three acts titled "If Mother Only Knew." It was directed by Mr. and Mrs. Bredthauer.

The plot revolved around Mrs. Maxwell, whose three children thought she was stepping out on their father. Each figures out his own solution, and when all of their ideas combined it almost proves to be disastrous.

All comes to a happy end, and all the proceeds went toward financing the Junior-Senior Prom.

Wilber and Hercules laugh over an old love letter of Mrs. Maxwell.

C. VanDyke begins the long process of making up J. Clark.

Future lawyer, C. Peterson, straightens out everything in the end.

GOLF 1968

The golf team this year was coached by Coach Ray Fuhr. The team had equally good underclassmen as seniors so watch them next year because we will still have half of this good team.

"Patience is a virtue."

Kevin and Julie were royalty at the Fresh-Soph Hop.

FRESH-SOPH HOP

As is evident from the pictures on this page, you can see that the theme of the Hop was indeed a "flowery" one. All the flower children of the freshman and sophomore classes were invited to this Flower In. As you can tell, the dress was quite informal and "way out." Kevin Gustafson and Julie Fickling were the royal flowers in this garden. Everyone attending enjoyed the event.

Well--as one "flower" to another--

A merry group are we, Cambridge flowers.

Furniture, Gracious no!

"Ahoy down there!"

JUNIOR-SENIOR PROM

Discussing details for the decorations.

Prom activities took place "In the Misty Moonlight." Juniors, seniors, and faculty members began the memorable evening of May 4 by enjoying a good meal and wonderful entertainment at the prom banquet. The dance took place in the gym, which had been transformed into a romantic, moonlit garden under the stars. Bob Hodgett's Orchestra furnished music for dancing. Jim Moriarity and Carol Telleen were crowned king and queen by last year's royal couple, Steve Leander and Janifer Grant. The evening's fun was not over as the dance ended; many prom-goers went to the bowling alley for a movie, bowling, and a breakfast.

HONORS ASSEMBLY

--And the band goes on and on, as it stretches across the gym while members are being given their awards.

On May 17, the students of CHS were honored by their fellow classmates and faculty. The awards that the CHS 'ers had long worked for were presented.

The Student Council installed the officers for the 68-69 school year and the Fresh -Soph and Varsity cheerleaders were announced.

Here are two "old" officers retiring.

Here we find senior boys who excelled in sports.

Others we see here in class.

GRADUATION

On the night of May 31, 1968, the class of '68 entered the CHS Gym as students for the last time. The maroon and white line of robe-clad seniors moved slowly and methodically towards the stage as proud parents and friends looked on. Assembled and seated on the stage, the class listened to speeches given by the salutatorian, class representative, and valedictorian. These positions were held by Carol Telleen, Steve Hultgren, and Mary Anderson. The strains of "Halls of Ivy" and "This is My Country," and finally the presentation of diplomas, made all of the graduates realize that they were leaving their school days behind and going out to take more active roles as citizens of their nation and the world.

Through the year, the seniors have contributed much to the "Spirit of CHS, as reflected here.

Daydreaming is a big occupier of senior time.

The faculty lineup for the donkey game.

FACULTY-VARSITY GAME

The Varsity Club sponsored a donkey basketball game, which was held in the Camb. community hall on April 25. Some of the businessmen participated as well as the Varsity Club members and the faculty. The cheerleaders also participated in the activities. There was a good turnout by the townspeople and everyone went home laughing--well almost everyone.

"Ride-em cowboy."

"Aw come on!"

Mrs. Fitzpatrick wins the race.

ASSEMBLIES

C.H.S. had four special assemblies this year. They were Peter Tanis--Crime Prevention; Ron and Carol Nunn--Trampoline Spaceballs; Waconda High School Band; and Ken Henderson--One Man Band. All these assemblies were very interesting and were enjoyed by all.

BAND & CHORUS CANDIDS

At Honors Assembly we finally got the pins we had worked for!

Barb did get awfully weary so she takes time out to pose.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

As you read through the '68 Viking you have no doubt noticed that the school has already changed from the way it was described into a completely different atmosphere and surrounding. The '68 seniors have gone to their schools, jobs, marriages, or military and the new group of freshman have moved up from the grades. Although it is hard to realize for the '68 seniors the school will still go on as it always has only without us.

As you read through the '68 Viking you have no doubt noticed that the school has already changed from the way it was described in the preceding pages. The 'seniors of '68 are gone and a new group of freshman have come into CHS. For you this book is merely another to add to your collection of old annuals, but to the senior class this book symbolizes the way CHS will always be when they look back on it in years to come.

Thanks to everyone who helped make the 1968 Viking a reality, but a special thanks goes to:

MISS CATHERINE KOEHNE, ADVISOR--

She helped a great deal offering suggestion and organizing layouts, copy, etc.

MR. SCHULTZ--

Our organization photographer for the VIKING.

MR. M. L. GARDNER--

Our American Yearbook representative.

JIM MORIARTY--

Our business manager who did much work on finances for the yearbook and carnival.

CAROL MECUM--

Our copy editor who spent much time proofreading and rewriting copy.

LARRY STAHL AND BILL LINDBURG--

Our photographer who spent many hours taking pictures and working in the dark room.

JIM GRADERT--

Our sports editor who spent a lot of time covering various sports activities.

MR. SMITH AND MR. BUHLIG--

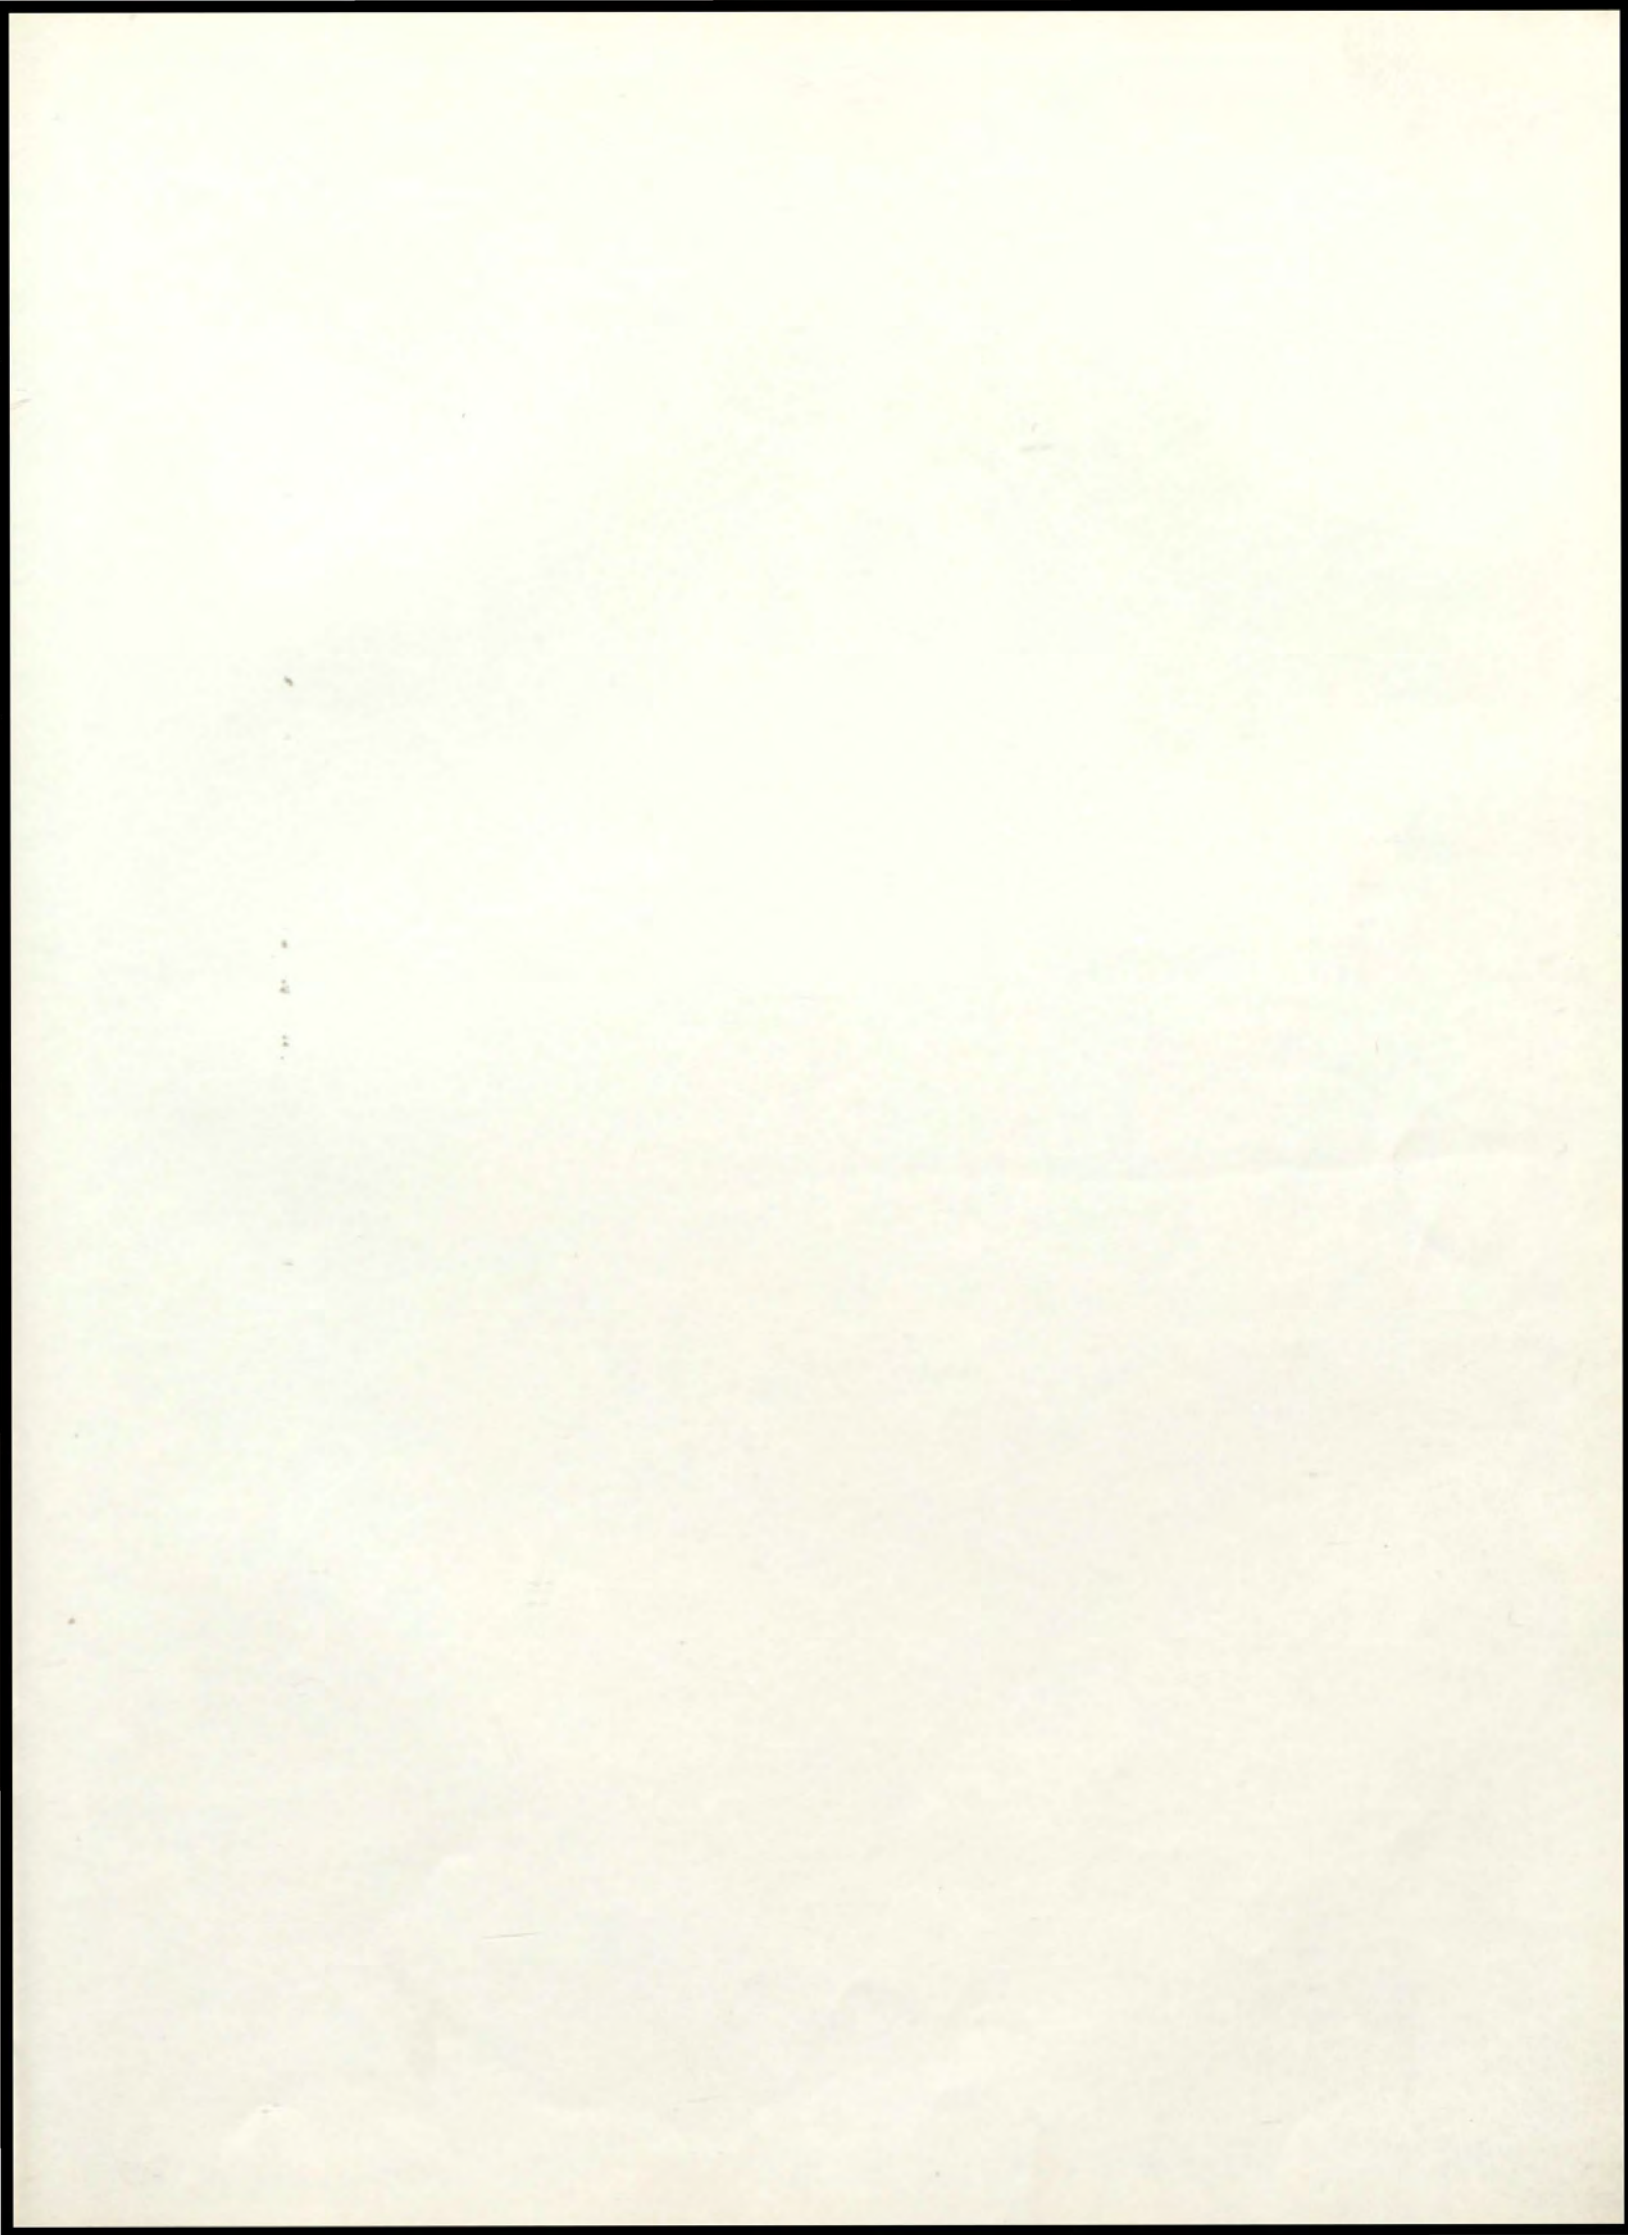

Our superintendent and principal who helped us a great deal.

A SPECIAL THANKS-- to anyone whose name was not mentioned but was so much a part of the 1968 VIKING.

It is my sincere hope, as editor, that this year's VIKING ANNUAL is what you the students wanted and will help you remember CHS in years to come.
